Luxury, Meet Purity

Believe it or not, when it comes to personal care products, these two have never met.

Until now.

Bare Living products achieved what many claimed was not possible.

The Pursuit

Arriving at such a high-quality product was far from easy. Many times we were told that achieving a luxury product that is pure and made with synthetic-free ingredients was impossible. "It just can't be done!" they told us.

Working with one of the biggest name manufacturers in the world, we pushed research and development to new levels. We were able to produce something so pure, remarkable, and worthy of our Bare brand of products.

Traverse the Globe

Bare Living brings the best aromatic plant extracts and essential oils from around the world and places them into the comfort of your home. From the hills of Bulgaria, to the mountains of Nepal, to the orchards of the United States. As you use Bare Living, you circle the globe, bringing the world's finest ingredients into your home, every day.

Always Pure, Natural Fragrances

These uplifting fragrances harvested from the earth's own plants and natural botanicals stimulate your senses while creating a daily experience that has you enjoying the absolute best the world has to offer.

AVALON RAIN

As your senses ignite when the rain gently kisses your skin, so does your mind when gently kissed by the heart of inspiration.

The citrusy brightness of lemon and orange enlivens creativity, while the freshness of basil and the gentleness of jasmine encourage you to relax as you contemplate the uniqueness of living a natural life.

We are pleased to offer such a clean, pure product, and we are honored to be in your home. It is for these reasons that we offer and stand by our Bare Promise, and will continue to bring you clean, quality products made with nature's most luxurious ingredients.

Our Bare Promise

Nature provides us with everything we need. It's our responsibility to harness its powers to create superior, luxurious products that contribute to a healthier, more fulfilling life.

YOR Health decided to reach into the ground and pull up some of nature's finest ingredients. This opened up the planet for us, leading us to source our botanicals from all across the globe. Our commitment to creating clean, non-toxic products has us continuously striving to find the best ingredients, and if it's out there and we can use it, we will.

live bare

we are encouraging others to return to nature, rid themselves of harmful toxins, return to a simpler life, and see a more complete vision of what true health really is.

We're on a mission to
live bare.
